Cendrine Montousse Appointed General Manager (EMEA) for InnerWorkings France

Former Reckitt & Benckiser Director joins brand delivery giant to oversee international operations in continental Europe and Africa

CHICAGO & ZURICH--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- InnerWorkings, Inc. (NASDAQ: INWK), a leading global marketing supply chain company, today announced the appointment of Cendrine Montousse as General Manager for the continental EMEA region.

In her position, Montousse will supervise the operations of 16 InnerWorkings offices across continental Europe and Africa.

Stated Yves Rogivue, regional president of InnerWorkings EMEA and APAC: "Cendrine brings vast experience in international brand procurement to InnerWorkings and a track record for success. Under her leadership, InnerWorkings will continue to set the standard for brands looking to drive breakthrough experiences worldwide — while simultaneously managing complexities and costs across a global marketing supply chain."

Prior to joining InnerWorkings, Montousse served as the Head of Indirect Purchasing for Reckitt & Benckiser's Europe operations, as well as a marketing category procurement manager for Novartis Pharma (France).

Montousse began her new role on Monday, October 21 and is based in Paris, France.
